Practical new resource supports the wellbeing of people with learning disabilities: This second edition of the “Health Charter” explains how it can be used by social care providers and its aim to reduce inequalities in healthcare. Download here

It sets out key outcomes and advice on how to:

- establish a clear commitment to addressing health inequalities
- deliver an important message to commissioners that health and wellbeing is a priority
- support regulatory compliance
- drive improvements in services, set strategic goals and organisational responsibilities
- support the duty - included in the Care Act - to promote wellbeing.

Palliative Care Adult Network Guidelines Plus available: This website is accessible to practitioners who require more up to date advice on symptom management including Psychological and Social issues.

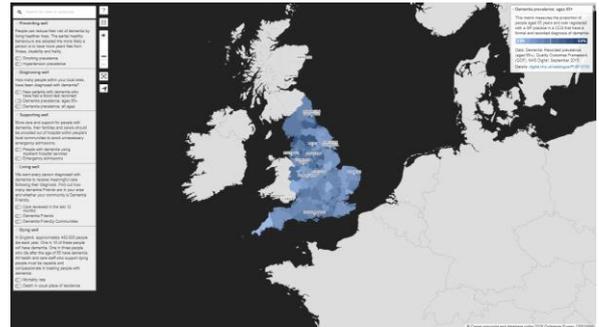

NHS England's first webinar from the EoLC programme: For those who were able to join in on the 11th August to listen to Professor Bee Wee and colleagues, you can now access the presentation via this link
