

National PD Offender Strategy

Ministry of JUSTICE
National Offender
Management Service

NHS

National Probation
Service

HM PRISON
SERVICE

Dr Julian Walker
Consultant Forensic Clinical Psychologist

the strategy – the vision

- Reduce risk and serious offending
- Early identification
- Improve wellbeing
- Reduce inequalities
- Develop workforce
- Develop leadership

the strategy – principles

- Jointly commissioned services (MOJ/ NHS)
- Jointly delivered services (NHS/NPS)
- High risk first
- Pathway focus
- Benefit to as many people as possible
- Experience based design
- Separate womens' strategy
- Independent evaluation

Current Status of Services

- £13,000,000 commissioned
- 80+ services
- All 34 Probation areas have services
- 18 Pipes (600 places)
- 6 High Secure Services
- 6 Therapeutic Communities
- 2 large evaluations
- All returning data/ recruited/ doing formulation

South of England – so far.....

- Community:
 - community services
- Male prisons:
 - HMP Swaleside, Standford Hill, Grendon,
 - Aylesbury –for young adults
- Female prisons:
 - HMP Send, Bronzefield and Eastwood Park
- KUF
 - Reduction in places → more bespoke training

South of England – next.....

Community:

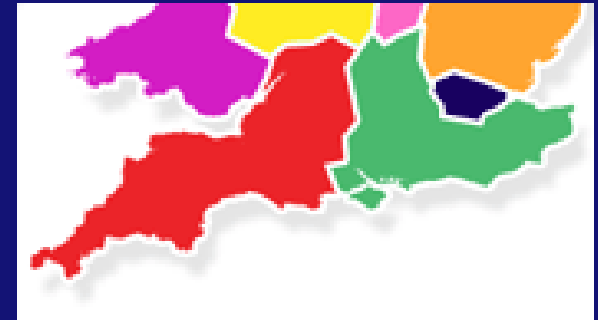

- Enabling Environments for Approved Premises (Probation Hostels)
- Treatment (Mentalisation Based Therapy Trial)

Prison:

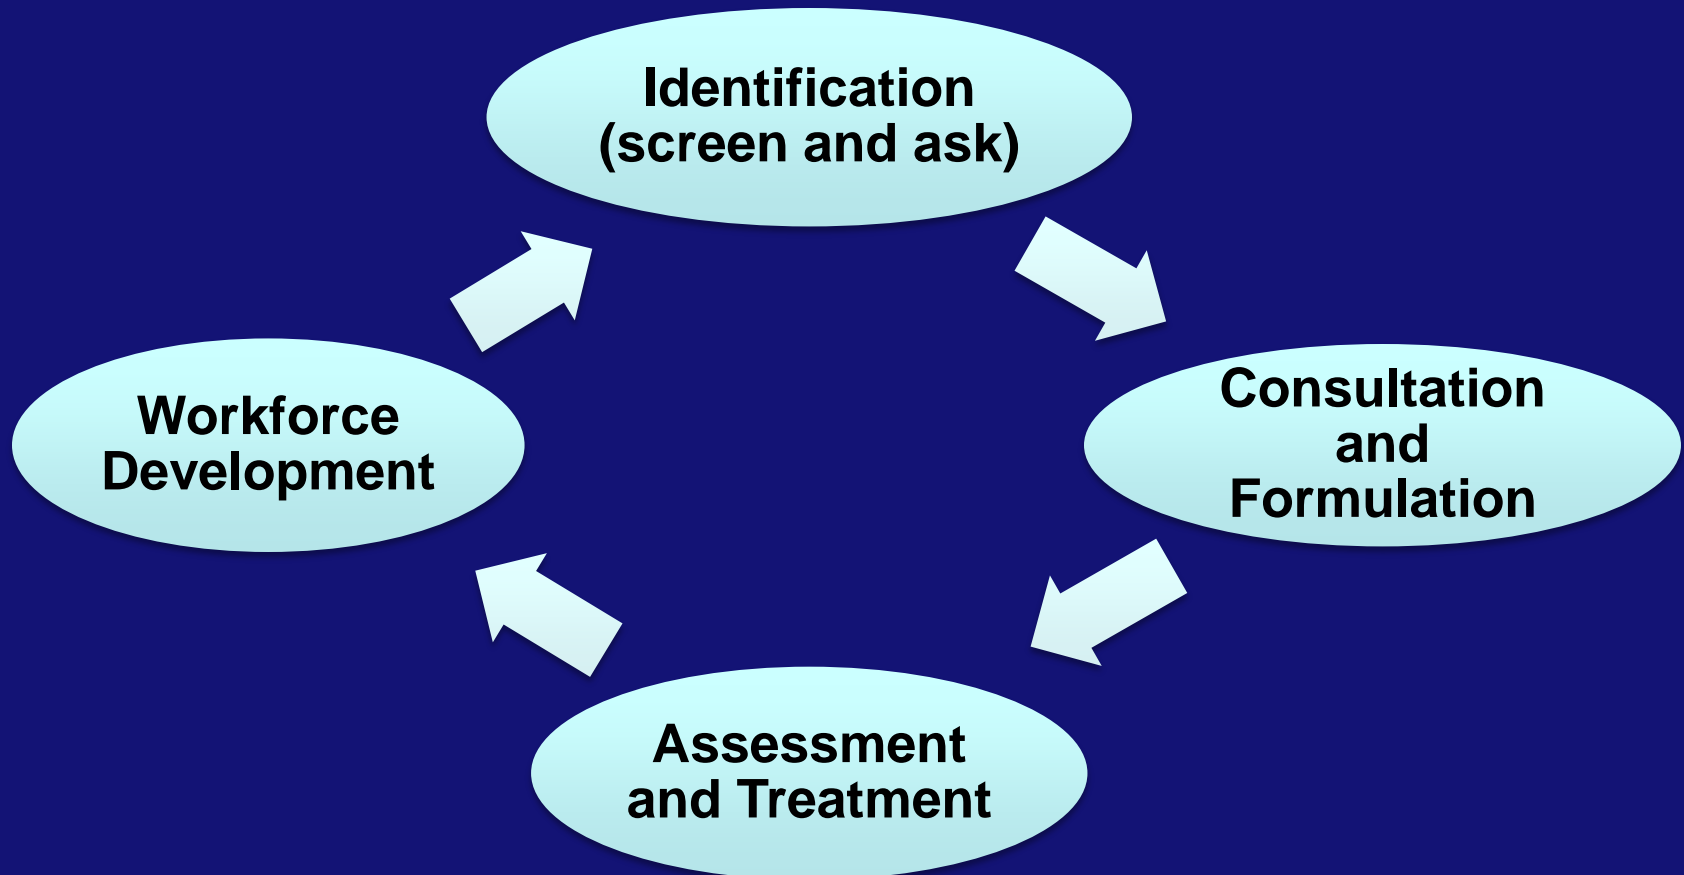

- Psychologically Informed Planned Environments
- Sex offender pathway

Women's pathway:

- Mentoring and advocacy

activities

Tips for successful services

- Experienced, psychologically minded leadership
- Involvement in national programme
- Carefully chosen staff
- Team cohesion and staff support
- Proper service user involvement

Some questions

- How were things for you before Pathfinder? What was wrong with services?
- How are things better now? What helped?
- (Audience question?)

Tony Benn

“Sometimes you just have to do the right thing.”

Without thinking about the costs, the political consequences or what people will think.

“You just have to get on and do what is right.”

