

National Headliners

Compassion in Dying releases a new “Advance Decision Pack”: It allows people to record any treatments that they do not want to be given in the future, in case they later become unable to make or communicate decisions. It enables people to remain at the heart of these choices, giving peace of mind and facilitating personalised, planned end-of-life care.

Access the website here

NCPC publishes ‘Developing an Asset Based Approach Within a Learning Community - Using End of Life Care as an Example’: This practical guide provides detail on what an asset based approach can look like and what factors need to be in place, incorporating lessons learnt and tips from those who have already explored the approach.

Download the resource here

NEoLCIN Webinar on end of life care in Care Homes: If missed the first time, there is an opportunity to view this webinar again here:

Topics included:

- The key challenges to providing end of life care in care homes
- An overview of capacity and need for end of life care services in care homes
- Data exploring what care home residents die from and where they die
- A tutorial on new care home indicators that have been added to the End of Life Care Profiles

Four new sessions have been announced by e-ELCA team:

1. Writing an advance decision to refuse treatment (ADRT) – complements sessions ADRT in principle and ADRT in Practice.
2. “I’m not loveable anymore”: discussing intimacy in EoLC has been significantly updated
3. Intrathecal drug delivery (ITDD): an overview of ITDD for the management of cancer pain.
4. Motor Neurone Disease Learning Path. A specific learning path has been developed

For more information here on e-ELCA website

NCPC releases ‘Best Practice in care coordination for palliative and end of life care services information for commissioners’: this information resource is to support commissioners in designing and contracting optimal care coordination systems for their local areas. Access the resource here

Regional Updates

What Matters to Me: a Human Rights approach to end of life care free workshops: The workshops at the Taunton Rugby Club and there are just few a limited number of spaces are available.

Book your place via the links:

Wednesday 20 September 9.30-4pm
Wednesday 27 September 9.30-4pm